

Pre-Professional Program

2021-2022

Pre-Professional study program

While all of our students are given quality training and equal attention in class, some wish to learn the art of ballet for pure enjoyment, while others have a larger goal in mind.

To accommodate the needs of the more serious student, we provide a pre-professional study program. This program includes weekly mandatory classes, guidance, and assistance with goal setting and future planning, as well as connections with physical therapists and nutritionists.

Pre-Professional dancers are given more performance and workshop opportunities throughout the season.

To ensure this is a right fit for the dancer, students interested must be evaluated and accepted into this program.

This program is not required, only encouraged for those looking for a more involved ballet education.

As always, weekly classes for all ages are available for those who do not wish to participate in our pre-professional study program.

Information and Guidelines

To ensure safe practices and consistency of training, students enrolled in Ballet Rockland's Pre-Professional program are asked to keep their ballet training exclusive to Ballet Rockland. Visiting other schools or taking classes elsewhere should be discussed with Ms. Tew before doing so. This is for consistency of training and to avoid confusion of the student. Many classes outside of Ballet Rockland are a wonderful compliment to our training, while others can conflict with our methods.

Attendance is required in the assigned number of classes. Frequent absences may result in removal from the program and placement in recreational classes without tuition reimbursement.

Please contact us if you are expecting to be late or absent. Dancers who are more than 5 minutes late will be asked to sit and observe class.

Dress code must be worn at all times.

Pre-Professional students will be given several performance opportunities throughout the year. If a dancer commits to performance, attendance is required at all rehearsals and performances unless otherwise discussed with Ms. Tew or the rehearsal director.

Dancers in this program may be invited to attend classical ballet competitions throughout the year. This opportunity is for the personal growth of the student and is by invitation only.

If a dancer is injured, they are asked to attend class with a notebook and observe as part of their training.

The undersigned has read, understood, and agrees to the terms and conditions above.
